Ages 65 and over, first responders, teachers and childcare, not prisoners, not mink farmers	Hart, Sandy	Part 2 pg 197	Decline to prioritize strictly by age. 1%-5% additional infections will be averted by vaccinating essential employees. Most opposition was along the lines of mink farmers are not considered to be essential workers or could take steps to mitigate risk by the use of PPE. It does not appear that the majority of responders fully understood to biosecurity risks posed by animal to human transmission. With the understanding that there will continue to be opposition to inclusion of mink farmers in Plan 1b due to the lack of comprehension of the biosecurity risks involved as well as the small number of people that fall into this category it is recommended that no changes be made to the current language.
