Join us for the Fatality Review Conference 2024 on October 14 – 15, 2024, in Prescott, AZ

Domestic violence fatality review teams are re-emerging from the pandemic and beginning to thrive again. This conference will celebrate the work of long-standing and newly established teams, providing ample opportunity to meet other review team members. Special foci include reviews in Indian Country, the latest national and international developments, the work of experienced and newly formed teams, implementing recommendations, confidentiality and ethical issues, mental health, suicidality and fatality review, working with surviving family, the role of perpetrators in reviews, and the relationship between fatality review and community informed risk assessment. In addition, the conference will provide hands-on opportunities with an array of mock reviews, including important new offerings regarding suicide reviews.
